This is the most important pre-college quiz you'll take. >

B.

Learn.
Think.
Do.

Where you learn is just as important as what you learn.

- small classes average 15 students
- 90% of students receive financial aid
- earn 2 degrees faster through our accelerated learning options
- all students are considered for as much as $28,000 in merit scholarships

Choose a college setting:

- A. the middle of nowhere, where cornstalks outnumber students
- B. the heart of a city, where there are plenty of internship and career opportunities

Choose a living situation:

- A. a cramped dorm room shared with four strangers
- B. your own apartment (with your own bedroom and bathroom)

Choose a classroom setting:

- A. huge lecture halls with stadium seating
- B. small classrooms where you get one-on-one attention from professors

Choose who you want to learn from:

- A. teaching assistants who haven't spent a day in the field
- B. faculty who are working professionals with real-world experience

Choose how you want to spend your money:

- A. on a private school with an inflated price tag (that will take decades to pay off, by the way)
- B. on a university where you get a private-college experience at a public-college price (oh, and a tuition-free final semester)

{ If you answered B to all or most of these questions, we think you'd fit right in at UB. }

It's time to think hard about how you're going to spend the next few years.
